

Do give us a hand! Take your empty bottles, used glasses and other stuff with you, when you are done with it. And if you are still on your feet when the milonga ends, please help us to help yourself to a nice, fresh and beautiful venue.

Take a tango walk

Tango starts with the first step. Every evening newcomers show up at the introduction course in Kedelhallen. Yesterday the teachers Mette&Martin (photo) from M2Tango showed the way.

Milonga in the afternoon

From 2pm to 8pm the free milonga at the Kulturhuset Indre By gives you space and opportunities to meet friends and new acquaintances, do some tango shopping, have a coffee and a laugh.

And-and-and: treat yourself to a massage. Write your name on the list at the door on the first floor - and ease your sore muscles!

- Festival Info Desk is open from 11.45 until 18 at Kulturhus Indre By
- Get TangoMap with info about program, citymap, local cafe discounts

... and even the sun came out!

After night comes day - ohh what a platitude! But nevertheless it didn't take long for dancers to find a chair in the sun soon after the first rays hit the square in front of the afternoon milonga.

Tangorella lost her shoe!

In the heat of the abrazo - or more likely after! - some of you forgot your shoes. We have displayed them and other effects in the window by the foldertable in Kedelhallen.

Dressed to tango

"I see the movement of the dress in 3-dimensional", says Bettina Maria arriving from Berlin. She has lived in California and BA, now back in Europe designing and sewing fluid, soft, stretch designs for tango. She is present at Kulturhuset Indre

By all afternoons and Sunday evening during the festival.

"The tango dress should be feminine and pleasant for both", says Natallia from Russia. She has lived in Denmark for 12 years and is now designing for tango. She works with various types of silk and recommends tightness at waist and wide around the knees. She also works with Dansemessen here in Copenhagen.
