Out of chaos grows tango

Welcome to the 9th Copenhagen Tangofestival. For some of you for the first time, for others a revisit. We are happy to have you all at the main venue of the festival, Kedelhallen, which has been changed from a dull sport hall into a hall of tango by the volunteers of the Tango Association.

Just as the sign below so promising tell us that the red couch is 'a place for kissing' the venue of the festival is a place for dancing tango.

This year the hall has been altered a bit. Lars Lomborg from the festival organisers point out that it is to make a better use of all the space in the hall.

- In doing this we try to facilitate a more even use of the sitting areas around the floor and thereby making it possible for more people to both see and be seen during the evening, he explains.

- Festival Info Desk is open from 11.45 until 18 at Kulturhus Indre By

We spread information on tango – dance as well as the music. Everyone is welcome to take part in the event, since this is a great chance for us to share our passion for tango and reach new potential members.

For the first time in Denmark

Sexteto Milonguero

The Sexteto Milonguero formed in 2006 with the simple desire to play the dance repertoire, usually heard in the milongas, including different styles of different bands, emphasizing the 1940's, and beyond the excellent versions heard for years, Sexteto Milonguero tries to give a personal sound to these great old songs.

The only intention? Follow the path of those great bands, and do not let the tango withdraw from the neighborhood, the dancers, the popular, the milongas" Source:

Tango hands

How to hold hands is an artform and just as important as how to walk and lead and follow - but also just as varied as the way to tango.

THE TANGO QUOTE

Warning: tango contains highly addictive ingredients, such as pain, pleasure, passion, excitement, connection, freedom, torment, and bliss. In seven out of ten cases it takes over a person's life.
