100 years of tango in Copenhagen

The first 100 years of tango in Denmark was celebrated with a salute of sound and smoke. Sexteto Milonguero really fired the cannon and gave a show and performance that made the opening evening of the 9th version of Copenhagen Tango Festival memorable.

The tango comes out of the melting pot of Buenos Aires at the end of the 19th century but no one knows exactly how, where and when tango as we know it today was born.

What on the other hand we can established is the first time tango was introduced to the public in Copenhagen, namely in 1913 at the famous Copenhagen Hotel Palads. It was brought here by the Norwegian painter Per Krogh and his French wife Lucy Vidil - they gave a show so extraordinary that it was reported in the press! Do help us to live up to that today!

First impressions of the first evening milonga...

Fantastic place! Fine ambiance with the sail-roof - so different from industrial building. It created an intimate environment and subtle lighting.

The band was very skilled but a bit substantial/massiv. Turid and Sverri from the Faroe Islands. They came here for the first time three years ago and are now back for the festival.

I had very much fun. The band/Sexteto Milonguero, opened with great strength and good mood. The floor was great and the room was beautiful with the sailroof and lighting of many colors was very friendly for the dance.

Paula from Germany/Portugal, first time at the Copenhagen Tangofestival.

The ambiance was wonderful and fabulous. The band was unbelievable and the hostess was just lovely. I had great dances with people from Sweden and Norway. Great idea to have both afternoon- and evening milonga.

Danielle from England/Belgium, her first time at the festival.
