

Do give us a hand! Take your empty bottle, used glass and other stuff with you out, when you are done with it. And if you are still on your feet when the milonga ends, please help us to help yourself to a nice, fresh and beautiful venue.

Will we see you again?

Astrid (Basel): Maybe. It's a nice festival, it's international and people are very open to dance with each other.

Rachel (London) (left): I would like to go, but there are so many festivals. I don't plan to far in the future. Hiba (London): I hope so, I'd love to.

Frank (Berlin): Sure! Cool festival. The flow of the floor was better last year, but it is good that the size of floor has been expanded. The possibility to meeting with friends also influences the impression of the festival.

Natalie (London): Good festival organisation. Friendly. I may come back, but there are so many other things to choose from.

Arvid (Norway): Definitely. This is my 3rd time at the festival. I have already planned for the next festival. Actually it's my favorite festival.

David (England), who came here from UK on his motor bike, says: I would like to come again. And it was great with the buffet. David and his tango friends would like to see local teachers perform in stead of the international teachers.

AFTERNOON AND EVENING DJ:

Guieseppe - Paris

2.200 through the entrance

Report from the front line of the evening milonga: 2.178 visited the festival in Kedelhallen from Wednesday to Saturday, says Michael who has been organizing the workshops and the selling of milongapasses.

How many came to the afternoon milonga?

- We can't say since it was free - but the floor was packed!

The festival is organized by The Tango Association. All work is voluntary and we are a non profit festival. Any surplus will go into next year's festival. We spread information on tango – the dance as well as the music. Everyone is welcome to take part in the event, since this is a great chance for us to share our passion for tango and reach new potential members.

The morning crew

In the early morning sun – as the sails came down – the enthusiasts of The Tango Associations couldn't stop the fun – and emptied the evening venue in a jiffy to get back home to tango sleep before the Cool down milonga Sunday.

THE TANGO QUOTE

When you dance with a partner you are close and the dance is very suggestive, but it is not personal... Close is what the music inspires you to become. The embrace looks personal, but what we are actually embracing is the music.
